

19th-century William IV Period Burr Walnut Low Open Bookcase

9 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Width : 223

Height : 123.5

Depth : 36.5

Description

Stunning Quality Large 19th-Century Burr Walnut Low Open Bookcase A superb William IV-period burr walnut low open library bookcase of impressive scale and exceptional quality, England, circa 1840. This elegant piece features two spacious bays, each fitted with two fully adjustable shelves, providing ample and versatile display space for books and decorative objects. The beautifully figured rectangular burr walnut top, with a shaped, molded edge, sits above an interior divided by a finely carved, fluted central column with a carved capital, flanked by plain, molded burr walnut columns. The bookcase stands on a shaped plinth base and is finished with beautifully figured walnut sides, displaying a rich, warm color and a wonderful patina developed over nearly two centuries. The

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

craftsmanship is of a very high standard throughout, showcasing the refinement and understated elegance characteristic of the William IV and early Victorian periods. Both highly functional and visually striking, this low open bookcase is ideal for a library, study, sitting room, or sophisticated contemporary office. It offers not only excellent storage but also a strong decorative presence--a true statement piece for any interior that values fine 19th-century British craftsmanship, originality, and timeless style.