Description

Engraving depicting the symbolic 21st arrondissement of Paris, created using etching and aquatint in color. Titled "Homage to Rodin," it depicts The Kiss by the sculptor--Paolo and Francesca from The Divine Comedy, entwined as they kiss for the first time--rendered in black line against a background of a cloudy night. It is signed in pencil by Orfeo TAMBURI (1910-1994) and published by Il Cigno between 1979 and 1981 in Rome; the publisher's stamp is located in the lower right corner of the sheet. This is a limited edition of 130 copies on Pescia paper. The print is part of the "Paris 20+1" print collection, which celebrates the beauty of the City of Light... Read more
