

A Tuscan Console Table From The Early 1800s,

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 119

Height : 105

Depth : 49

Description

A Tuscan console table from the early 1800s, crafted from fine solid cherry wood. The original marble top, with its refined dark veining, lends the piece a noble and timeless character. The slender, harmonious legs are embellished with carved and gilded appliques depicting winged figures, typical of the Neoclassical style. The lower crossbar with a turned rod ensures sturdiness and stability, while the feet on casters highlight the piece's practical function in formal settings. A piece of great charm, ideal for entryways, living rooms, or galleries, capable of enhancing both classic and contemporary spaces with an authentic vintage touch.

Dealer

Il Rigattiere di Martini
Antiques

Mobile : +393392392619

Via Aurelia nord 92

Grosseto 58100