Description

Jean de LESPINASSE (1896-1979) Large ceramic vase or pitcher decorated with a continuous band and two friezes of interlocking hearts, glossy black interior, circa 1950-60 Signed on the reverse: JDL No. 13 Very Good Condition Dimensions: Height: 31 cm - Diameter: 34 cm Jean De Lespinasse (1896-1979), who began producing ceramics in the late 1940s, crossed paths with Roger Capron MADOURA, and Georges Tardieu. His works were sold in luxury boutiques, initially on the Côte d'Azur, and later throughout France and internationally. The pieces are generally large, dynamic, and highly structured. Of particular note is the extensive work with glaze--ranging from matte to glossy--which demonstrates great mastery of the art of ceramics.
