

Regency-style Corner Bookcase - 1930s

1 650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Oak

Width : 150cm x 2

Height : 250cm

Description

Regency-style corner bookcase - 1930sAn elegant interpretation of the Regency style, this remarkable corner bookcase, crafted in the 1930s, captivates with its balanced proportions and exceptional craftsmanship.Crafted from beautiful, fine-grained oak--likely sourced from Hungary--it features a tight, luminous grain that lends the piece a warm and refined presence. The richness of its decoration attests to particularly meticulous carving: openwork friezes, latticework, interlacing patterns, small flowers, and shells flow elegantly along the undulating cornice, in the purest decorative spirit of the 18th century.Its corner design allows it to add character to a space while making the most of the available area. The interior, featuring numerous shelves, offers generous storage capacity for a book collection, a

Dealer

La Musardière

Antiquités

Mobile : 0695665390

5 place du champ de foire

Jonzac 17500

collection of art objects, or a display of porcelain and curiosities. Another notable advantage: this bookcase can be completely disassembled. Its design makes it considerably easier to transport, install, and integrate into both contemporary and more traditional interiors. A high-quality decorative piece that combines the charm of French styles with the excellence of 1930s cabinetmaking, ideal for adding character and distinction to a home with character.