Description

This work by Henri Rivière is authentic and vintage. Regarding its condition, note a tear at the bottom (0.6 mm) in the margin. The lithograph's colors are very vibrant; once framed, any imperfections will be invisible. Sold as is. Henri Rivière (1864-1951) was a French painter, printmaker, and illustrator. He began his career with drawing, then moved on to intaglio printmaking, specifically etching, in 1882. At the same time, in 1886, he began a career as a director and set designer for shadow plays at the Cabaret du Chat Noir, enhancing these performances with the creation of highly innovative, colorful sets. He then devoted himself exclusively to painting and printmaking, making his mark in the history of etching, printmaking, woodcut, lithography, and watercolor (he painted
