Description

Louis XVI-Era Mahogany Half-Moon Console Table, circa 1780 Exquisite Louis XVI-era Half-Moon Console Table, inlaid with mahogany and precious woods, resting on tapered legs with fluted grooves. This half-moon console features a white marble top veined with gray, molded with stepped moldings. Very fine marquetry work featuring a geometric design, with the apron displaying a rhythmic pattern of vertical panels. It rests on two tapered fluted legs at the front. Beautiful wood grain. Beautiful patina. A piece of furniture of fine craftsmanship with understated and refined lines. This console table combines practicality--you can display your art objects, decorative items, clocks, or lamps on it-- But it also makes for a very attractive piece with its harmonious and delicate curves.
