Description

The "Soriana" two-seater sofa, designed by Afra and Tobia Scarpa in 1969 and produced by Casina since the 1970s, is a true icon of 20th-century Italian design. This piece, renowned for its soft, enveloping lines, has recently been updated with both padding and upholstery, maintaining its original elegance while enhancing its comfort. The metal frame embraces the fabric, lending it a distinctive and sophisticated look. The sofa is upholstered in a yellow fabric, adding a touch of warmth and liveliness to any space. Ideal for lovers of vintage design and those seeking a furnishing piece that combines functionality and aesthetics.
