

---

Sculpture - The Walking Lioness , Alfred Thiele (1886-1957) - Bronze

4 200 EUR

Signature : ALFRED THIELE (1886-1957)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Length : 42 cm

Height : 27 cm

Depth : 15 cm

Description

A significant Art Deco-period bronze animal sculpture , depicting a walking lioness by the famous German sculptor , Alfred Thiele .The work embodies a masterful fusion of the animal world and art .From the fur to the meticulously rendered muscles , the sculptor highlights the lioness's physical beauty , as well as the power and grace that characterize this majestic animal , with technical mastery and undeniable sensitivity .The delicate proportions emphasize the elegance of the lioness's body as she walks .Alfred Thiele invites us not only to contemplate the raw beauty of nature but also to reflect on the connection between humans and animals , and on wildlife in motion within its natural habitat ."The Walking Lioness" transcends mere representation , becoming a true tribute to the majesty of wildlife

Dealer

Galerie Caroline Miguet-Giafferri

Sculptures XIX e et XX e

Tel : +33 (0)6 71 93 49 35

Marché Biron Allée 1 Galeries 113 /114 / 115 - 85 rue des Rosiers

Saint-Ouen 93400

.This major work by the artist challenges and raises the viewer's awareness of the richness of our natural environment .Sculpture resting on a sea-green marble pedestal .Antique bronze , signed "ALF.THIELE" and dated in Roman numerals "1917", engraved on the lioness's tail .In perfect condition with excellent patina

.Dimensions : 27 cm x 42 cm x 15 cmALFRED THIELE (1886-1957)Alfred Thiele , a renowned German sculptor and medalist , is characterized by a profound artistic sensibility .Trained at the Academy of Fine Arts in Leipzig , in the great traditions of classical sculpture , Alfred Thiele distinguished himself within the 20th-century art scene by incorporating contemporary elements .He worked briefly in Munich , before devoting himself fully to sculpture in his own studio , in Leipzig .His sculptures , often influenced by nature and humanity , reveal an introspection that allows the viewer to establish an emotional connection with each work .Beginning in 1921 , he taught at the Leipzig School of Applied Arts , where he headed the sculpture department until 1953 .Alfred Thiele participated in numerous exhibitions across Europe , with his works being praised by critics of the time for their originality and technical mastery .His extensive body of work includes exceptional animal sculptures and architectural works , which survived the destruction of World War II .His invaluable contribution to art has earned him lasting recognition , making him a key figure in the Art Deco movement .