Description

A French-made "bois de violette" bookcase dating from the late 19th century. Featuring glass front doors and sides, it boasts a refined design in which the central door protrudes slightly beyond the two side doors, creating an effect of depth and movement. The decorative elements, moldings, and panel on the central door are in the Neoclassical style, crafted from chiseled and gilded bronze, lending the bookcase an elegance typical of the era. In addition to serving as a bookcase, this piece can enhance any room thanks to its fine craftsmanship and high-quality materials. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
