Description

A Neoclassical-style console table, featuring a clear glass top that highlights its elegant design and the quality of its materials. The top is supported by a pair of plaster legs, sculpted in the shape of opposing caryatids, lending the piece a sculptural touch and striking visual impact. The choice of plaster for the legs not only evokes classical aesthetics but also allows for fine, detailed craftsmanship of the figures. Made in Italy in the 20th century, this console table fits perfectly into both classical and contemporary interior settings, offering a harmonious blend of functionality and decoration.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this piece requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details
