Description

A mahogany conversation sofa dating from the mid-19th century, from Italy. Designed to comfortably seat two people, it features an elegantly contoured backrest with finely carved scrolls at the base of the two backrests and on the armrests' posts, giving the piece a distinctive character. The curved legs, which also end in scrolls, complete the harmony of the design. The seat, armrests, and backrest are upholstered and covered in a striped fabric, which adds a touch of classic elegance to the entire piece.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
