Description

Table Runner or Headboard in Tufted Silk Velvet and Embroidered Lace - End 19th Century
An elegant table runner or decorative panel that can also be used as a headboard, crafted from sumptuous quilted silk velvet in a delicate powder pink. In the center, a wide band of fine tulle is adorned with remarkable raised embroidery featuring a stylized floral design. The motifs of blooming flowers and long, sinuous stems are set within a frame punctuated by intertwined links, creating a design of great finesse. The transparency of the tulle beautifully highlights the delicate embroidery. The contrast between the silky sheen of the velvet and the airy lightness of the lace lends this piece a rare charm and timeless elegance. Displayed on a large table, a bed, or a console table, this antique textile becomes a true
