Description

Louis XVI-Style Flat-Topped Desk in Walnut, France, 1930s-1940s. An elegant French desk dating from the 1930s-1940s, crafted from walnut and inspired by the timeless refinement of the Louis XVI style. The piece features a beautiful walnut veneer, resting on slender, tapered legs finished with brass feet. The top is upholstered in its original green leather, hand-decorated with gold trim, whose patina--naturally acquired over time--enhances the piece's authentic charm. Featuring five practical drawers, this desk combines refined proportions with everyday functionality. The brass keyholes, clean lines, and classic details lend it a discreet elegance that blends seamlessly into both traditional and contemporary interiors. Whether used as a writing desk, work desk, coffee table, or focal point in a
