Description

Louis XVI-Style Mahogany Cabinet Armchair, Circa 1900
Superb Louis XVI-style mahogany cabinet armchair, molded and carved, resting on tapered legs with fluted legs. This armchair, with a rectangular backrest, is upholstered with faux leather in fawn tones, finished with trimmings. Its armrests with cuffs rest on curved armrest supports. Its dynamic waistband is embellished with beaded decoration. Ornaments of great finesse. Joining blocks decorated with rosettes. Comfortable seating. Stable construction. High-quality furniture with understated and refined lines. This armchair combines practicality--thanks to its wide and comfortable seat--making it suitable for use as a cabinet chair, office chair, or reception chair. But it also makes for a very attractive piece with its
