Description

A carved and gilded wooden oil lamp in the Mecca style, featuring refined carvings of volutes and curls that highlight the craftsmanship of the period. Three mirrored inserts are set into the structure, adding a touch of brightness and reflections to the composition. The base features elegant central shells and three scroll-shaped legs that provide stability and serve as an additional decorative element. The fabric lampshade completes the ensemble, casting a soft glow that enhances the surrounding space. Originating from Sicily and dating to the late 18th century, this piece is a significant example of the decorative art of the era. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this lamp may require restoration and likely has an electrical system that does not comply with current regulations. We strive to present the
