Description

A Neoclassical-style small sofa, crafted from carved, lacquered, and gilded wood, dating from late 19th-century Italy. Featuring a curved backrest and seat, the small sofa has armrests with turned posts that culminate in scrolls decorated with leaf-motif carvings. The entire surface is embellished with Greek fret carvings typical of the Neoclassical style, which enhance its formal elegance. The wooden frame is adorned with a lacquered and gilded finish, which accentuates its refinement. The backrest, seat, and armrest inserts are padded, offering additional comfort. This piece is a significant example of late 19th-century Italian craftsmanship. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully
