Description

A superb writing desk made of solid walnut, featuring moldings, carvings, and inlays on all sides. It rests on a curved base with overhanging molding; it opens to reveal a drawer with scroll-cut edging around the top, a drop-down panel revealing a well-organized interior, and two drawers on the dovetail-jointed step. It features a beautiful marquetry design of water irises and a dragonfly; the drop-down panel is carved with incised details on the front. Gilded bronze lock plates and keys; the leather has been replaced. Beautiful quality of cabinetmaking. Nancy School Period: 1900-1910 We invite you to visit our website: antiquites-art-nouveau.fr
