Description

This Murano, Venice, light fixture stands out for its sculptural silhouette and its exquisitely elegant blown glasswork. Crafted in the spirit of the Venetian glassmaking tradition, it features a shaft made entirely of clear glass, punctuated by a succession of curved and spherical elements that create a subtle interplay of volumes and reflections. Its trapezoidal shade, covered in a light white fabric, diffuses a soft, warm light that highlights the glass's transparency and contours. The circular base provides stability and balance to the entire piece while maintaining a sense of visual lightness. Both refined and decorative, this floor lamp fits equally well in contemporary and classic interiors. It evokes the iconic craftsmanship of the Murano workshops, renowned for their mastery of artisanal glass and
