Description

This light fixture is a decorative pendant lamp in a contemporary style with strong Art Deco influences and a sculptural design. It consists of a central body made of textured glass that diffuses warm light, with 6 E14 bulbs. Radiating from this luminous core are delicate, star-shaped fins with transparent Murano glass tips, creating an effect reminiscent of a burst of sunlight or a luminous crown. The structure, made of brass-finished metal, is suspended from the ceiling by a brass rod. This light fixture has a very elegant and dramatic presence, with a play of reflections created by the glass elements, creating a refined, warm, and high-end atmosphere. Above a dining room table, in a sophisticated living room, or in an entryway. Its aesthetic evokes a piece that straddles the line between a work of art and
