Description

A bar from the 1950s/60s featuring a design typical of the Mid-Century Modern period. It is crafted from light oak veneer with an elegant pale yellow Formica top featuring black edges, creating a very graphic silhouette. Its curved shape and rounded corners make it an ideal decorative piece for a vintage interior, a loft, a restaurant, or a commercial space. 2 interior shelves. The piece is in good vintage condition with a beautiful original patina. It shows some normal signs of wear due to its age, without compromising its aesthetics or sturdiness. 2 small, barely visible veneer chips (photo) Dimensions: Length: 145 cm; Counter width: 30 cm. Side opening width: 52 cm Total depth including corner: 80 cm Height: 118 cm Economy shipping: 40 euros (this price applies
