Description

Fontana Arte coffee table from the 1960s with an elegant and timeless design, featuring a rectangular smoked glass top resting on a solid mahogany-stained wood frame. Its geometric base, composed of thick legs connected by crossbars, gives it an architectural silhouette and excellent stability. The contrast between the transparency of the glass and the warmth of the wood highlights the refinement of this piece, emblematic of Italian design. Thanks to its understated and balanced lines, this table fits equally well in both contemporary and classic interiors. Coffee table by Fontana Arte, an Italian designer, thick smoked glass, solid mahogany-stained wood, rectangular shape, This coffee table combines high-quality craftsmanship, premium materials, and minimalist aesthetics,
