Description

A 90 × 90 cm painting on Indian silk, stretched on a frame, depicting a remarkable composite animal, an emblematic theme in traditional Indian iconography. Inspired by the pictorial tradition of Rajasthan, this composition brings together a multitude of animals--horses, elephants, birds, fish, felines, and other creatures--that blend harmoniously to form a single figure. This technique, characteristic of Indian folk art, invites the viewer to gradually discover the different silhouettes. Crafted using traditional artisanal techniques, this decorative piece is ready to hang and will appeal to lovers of Indian and Asian art.
