

24-caliber Side-by-side Hunting Shotgun - France, Late 19th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

24-caliber side-by-side hunting shotgun - France, late 19th century Category D firearm; purchase and possession permitted for adults. No shipping outside the European Union. A finely crafted, beautifully made firearm. 24-caliber centerfire shotgun with external hammers. Side-by-side Damascus steel barrels that have retained their original bronze finish. Snake-key opening system. Firing plates engraved with hunting dogs and scrollwork. Good mechanical condition, crisp firing. No play. Solid. Plan to replace the firing pin springs (one is missing, the other is weak) as well as the shell extractor (the part is missing). Weight: 2136gr Length: 108cm Barrel length: 70cm

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120