Description

Low sideboard in solid cherry wood, Louis XV style, 18th-century craftsmanship. It features two molded doors on the front, three drawers running the full width, and a central panel, a layout characteristic of sideboards from this period. The scalloped panels, understated moldings, and the beautiful, warm patina of the cherry wood lend it great charm. The interior offers ample storage space with two shelves. The piece is made entirely of solid cherry wood; its back is constructed of wide antique planks, reflecting traditional craftsmanship. The locks are present, the lock plates are original, and the doors close properly; two keys are included. This sideboard will fit just as well in a classic interior as in a contemporary setting, where its authenticity and patina will be particularly highlighted. In good
