motifs and clusters of grapes cut with a grinding wheel. Lid frame with hinged spout and handles made of high-quality silver-plated pewter. Motifs of intertwined foliage, vine tendrils, and openwork geometric structures, perfect examples of the transition from organic naturalism to the geometric rigor of the Vienna Secession. Circa 1900, Art Nouveau period Very good overall condition for pieces from this era. The crystal is clear, with no chips or major cracks. The lid hinges are fully functional. Superb original patina on the metal with slight signs of age that attest to its authenticity. All inquiries via SMS or WhatsApp (Excluded).
