Description

Louis XVI-style mirror, late 19th century. Molding featuring a frieze of leaf-and-ovule motifs with Greek-style corners. A pair of doves in the center of the pediment is flanked by a torch, a quiver, and a bow. This design is complemented by a motif of flowering foliage and ribbons. Below the pediment, two garlands of flowers running across the front of the mirror complete the design. Paneled back and original mirror. Beautiful gold leaf gilding. Circa 1880.
