Description

Oil on canvas measuring 54 cm x 65 cm plus frame signed lower right titled and countersigned on the back Gérard FAGARD, born in 1938, was an outstanding colorist and heir to Fauvism. This artist roamed the hills, seaside, and countryside in search of the perfect light. In 1957, he enrolled at the École des Beaux-Arts in Rouen. In 1959, G. FAGARD followed his parents, who settled permanently in Sanary (VAR). He began his studies in October at the School of Fine Arts in Toulon. Despite a five-year deferment, he was forced to abandon his studies for 28 months of military service in Bourg-Saint-Maurice and then in Algeria, from which he returned deeply shaken. Despite his strong affinity for the South of France, he chose, of his own accord, to resume his studies in Rouen. In June, he earned the
