Description

A superb bronze sculpture, signed on the base, depicting a shepherd and his dog. Green patina. A sculptor and student of the Toulouse School artists Alexandre Falguière and Antonin Mercié, as well as the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, Abbal began exhibiting at the Salon des Artistes Français in 1896. After World War I (1914-1918), he was most frequently seen at the Salon d'Automne. A proponent of direct carving, he received major official commissions for the Palais de Chaillot and the war memorials in Toulouse and Moissac. The town of Carbonne (Haute-Garonne), which features his Harvester in one of its squares, has dedicated a museum to him where visitors can see, in addition to models of his major works and monuments, his owls and eagle owls.==> Exchange or trade-in possible
