Description

These four minimalist wall sconces captivate with their slender silhouette and decorative metal band. A single, curved glass shell--featuring two openings at the top and bottom--forms the base. The glass has a satin or sandblasted finish, but is always matte white. A black iron band in the center accentuates the outline and is adorned with a perforated band of stamped brass. This motif echoes the hourglass shape of the lamp itself. Two E14 sockets diffuse light upward and downward. Original wiring; can be replaced upon request. The glass shows no damage.
