Description

Bring all the refinement of the Aubusson tradition into your home with this elegant tapestry, "Minoterie", produced by Robert Four based on a design by Sonia Prudhomme. This poetic composition depicts an old flour mill nestled in the heart of a rolling landscape, surrounded by stylized foliage in soft hues. The buildings with their colorful roofs, the distinctive towers, and the foliage framing the scene create a peaceful and timeless atmosphere. The subtle palette of grays, greens, blues, and ochres lends great delicacy, while the yellow border harmoniously highlights the piece. Crafted using the renowned expertise of the Robert Four d'Aubusson workshops, this tapestry exemplifies the excellence of French craftsmanship. Its decorative style, both classic and contemporary, allows it to blend seamlessly
