Description

Jean MARAIS (1913-1998) explores one of his favorite themes by combining sculpture with a functional object. This Bull, crafted in black-glazed ceramic, is distinguished by its restrained volumes, the expressive stylization of the head, and the elegant circular handle seamlessly integrated into the animal's silhouette. The satin-black glaze enhances the smooth contours and reinforces the work's timeless, both archaic and modern character. Signed by the artist, this piece is a fine example of the poetic bestiary that defines Jean Marais's ceramic production in Vallauris.
