Description

Napoleon III-era (19th century) marquetry table with center flaps
Napoleon III-era marquetry table with center flaps, crafted in the Louis XVI style
Precious wood marquetry (burl, blackened pear wood, and light-colored native woods)
The central tabletop features a scalloped medallion with a black background adorned with arabesques, foliage scrolls, and a stylized vase of flowers. This composition is framed by a frieze of Greek motifs and foliage that extends across the two folding side panels. The table's apron opens via a drawer at the front, highlighted by a chiseled gilded bronze keyhole and framed by panels inlaid with floral garlands
The base consists of four tapered legs, fluted--a characteristic of the Louis XVI style--connected by a dynamic X-shaped crossbar in blackened
