

Inquisition Torture Mask

1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Height : 24.5 cm

Description

Inquisition Torture MaskA fascinating artifact used for torture, from the 19th century through the early 20th century. This is not a mask of humiliation, but a mask designed to inflict pain and suffering. The person wearing it is confined inside the mask, and then screws are tightened, exerting pressure on the skull. Another screw is placed in the victim's mouth. Height: 24.5 cm

Dealer

Antiques Armoury
Antiques and Collectables
Tel : 0035699849540

Triq Enrico Naudi
L'iklin IKL Malta 1641