Description

A very beautiful oval-shaped pedestal table with a mahogany veneer top and a molded edge. The apron is also made of mahogany veneer and is embellished with a small rounded molding; it features two small drawers with scalloped edges at the bottom, topped with a beautiful floral design. Our charming center table rests on four strongly curved legs forming inverted, superimposed double-C-shaped consoles, with the upper part of each leg richly carved with floral scrolls. The ends are finished with elegant volutes resting on casters; the whole is connected by an X-shaped crossbar, sinuously curved and adorned in the center with a double spindle. The whole piece is topped with a mahogany-veneered wooden tabletop; note a few small marks on the tabletop due to use (see photos 11 and 12) as well as a small, older veneer patch and a very slight lifting of the veneer that is barely visible--as is often the case with this type of furniture. These imperfections have no impact on the aesthetics of this undeniably charming pieceOur piece is a beautiful mid-19th-century creation crafted from solid mahogany and mahogany veneer.Dimensions:Height: 75 cmLength: 130 cmWidth: 82 cmPlease contact us for shipping costs via carrier.
