Description

We purchased this piece from a collector friend. It is a Kurdish rug from eastern Turkey. It is woven and knotted using wool-on-wool in the traditional manner. The quality of the wool is remarkable--soft and almost silky. The pile is short, about 5 mm. The natural and plant-based dyes are vibrant and deep. Magnificent indigo blue. The understated and extremely well-organized composition of this piece makes it both delicate and subtle. It's a work of art! All of the motifs are perfectly executed. Personally, I find this piece to be a true masterpiece. Late 19th century Very good condition Dimensions: 305 x 112 cm Laurent Beauty of Kilims
