Description

An elegant set of three nesting tables in the Chinoiserie style, adorned with remarkable panels carved in relief depicting Chinese-inspired scenes. Each tabletop is protected by a glass panel, highlighting the richness of the decorations while providing perfect protection. The rims are finely decorated with a carved floral frieze, while the legs, with their simple and elegant lines, allow the three tables to nest harmoniously. This decorative set perfectly illustrates the 20th-century European fascination with the arts of the Far East. Both practical and refined, these tables will find their place in a living room, an office, or an eclectic interior. In good overall condition, with a slight patina of wear consistent with their age.
