Refinished Beech Chair Dimensions: H.; Seat H.; W.; D. (cm) Paris, circa 1790 Chair resting on tapered, ring-mounted front legs; rear legs in a saber shape with chamfers. Molded rail, backrest re-drilled with a lattice pattern. Very fine craftsmanship in beech; the interiors of the rails are elegantly carved to lighten and reinforce the crossbars. This latter feature is characteristic of the work of Jean-Baptiste-Claude Sené and Georges Jacob. Numerous examples from the Tuileries dating from the turbulent period of the Revolution are known to exist. Condition report: completely reupholstered using traditional methods and
