Description

Pair of solid mahogany armchairs, Empire style, 19th century. They feature a beautiful, understated, and balanced design. The elegant, curved armrests rest on consoles carved with palmette motifs, while the scroll-shaped front legs and saber-shaped rear legs fully embody the decorative style of the First Empire. The slightly reclined backs provide excellent seating comfort. The armchairs retain a beautiful natural patina and traditional upholstery, featuring antique mustard-yellow fabric accented with a scattering of upholstery tacks (upholstery shows signs of wear). A stable and sturdy set, ideal for a living room, office, or library. This pair perfectly illustrates the elegance of early 19th-century French furniture. Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR100.
