Three Shepherd Figures From A Neapolitan Nativity Scene, Made Of Polychrome Terracotta, Early 19

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Terracotta

Height : 7

Description

A group consisting of three original shepherd figures from a Neapolitan nativity scene, made of polychrome terracotta and dating to the early 19th century. The three figures are of high-quality craftsmanship, characterized by expressive faces and polychrome painting that is still largely preserved. The rendering of the skin tones, hairstyles, and facial expressions reflects the tradition of Neapolitan nativity scene sculpture. On the back, remnants of the original structure made of tow and fabric--which connected the heads to the mannequin--are still visible. As was customary in antique Neapolitan nativity scenes, the body was constructed with a core of iron wire and tow, subsequently covered with hand-sewn fabric garments. The lot includes three different figures, likely belonging to the
