

Ornate Chest Of Drawers Made Of Molded Veneered Wood

18 000 EUR

Signature : Joseph STÖCKEL (1743-1802) et Guillaume BENNEMAN (1750-1811), d'après un modèle de

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Length : 180

Height : 93

Depth : 67

Description

Joseph STÖCKEL (1743-1802) and Guillaume BENNEMAN (1750-1811), based on a model by A grand, ornate chest of drawers made of molded, carved, and stained wood to imitate mahogany, opening with two doors to reveal six drawers and three belt drawers. Side panels shaped like fluted and rusticated columns with asperges. Rich ornamentation of chiseled and gilded bronze with a decoration of foliage, scrolls, leaves, lion's muzzle, knotted ribbons, and trimmings, as well as bacchanalian scenes in medallions. On spindle leg terminating in bronze spurs shaped like pinecones. White veined marble top. Louis XVI style. Height: 93 cm; Width: 179.5 cm; Depth: 67 cm. This chest of drawers is inspired by a prestigious model created in 1786, considered one of the most sumptuous of

Dealer

Nour El

Furniture and Works of Art Napoleon III, 18th, 19th, 20th

Mobile : 0033 6 03 00 53 41

99, rue des rosiers - marché Vernaison allée 1 stand 27

Saint-Ouen 93400

the reign of Louis XVI. Originally, these pieces formed a pair intended for the Count of Provence, before becoming part of the royal collection and being placed notably at Fontainebleau, where they are preserved today.