Description

Napoleon III-era oil lamp in bronze and red marble: An elegant oil lamp from the second half of the 19th century, resting on a base of veined red marble, enhanced by a rich, chiseled, and gilded bronze frame inspired by the Corinthian style. The cut-glass reservoir beautifully captures the light, while the antique burner is topped by an opaline glass globe engraved with a floral motif. The piece as a whole displays fine craftsmanship, characteristic of French productions from the Napoleon III era, where the refinement of the materials is combined with great decorative elegance. This lamp retains all the charm of its authenticity and is a prime piece for a classic interior or a collection of 19th-century art objects. Period: Napoleon III, 19th century. Materials: chiseled and gilded
