Description

Early 18th-century oil on canvas - Young Woman with a Parrot A charming 18th-century oil on canvas depicting an elegantly dressed young woman holding a parrot perched on her arm, with a birdcage visible beside her. The scene is set beneath a stone archway adorned with green drapery, in a Baroque-inspired setting reminiscent of French and Italian genre paintings of that era. The work captivates with the softness of the facial expression, the delicacy of the skin tones, and the harmony of the colors, dominated by warm, deep hues. The parrot, a symbol of exoticism and refinement in the 18th century, adds a precious touch to this intimate composition. The painting is set in an elegant carved and gilded wooden frame. The work is in good condition. The canvas shows signs of an
