Description

Conceived in 1996 by designer Philippe Mouquet, the Heure H collection incorporates Hermès's famous "H" into the very architecture of the case with remarkable elegance. This graphic design choice, characterized by great simplicity, gave rise to one of the house's most iconic watch creations, which over the years has become a true classic of women's watchmaking. The model shown here is crafted from steel and gold-plated metal in an elegant two-tone design, where the gold accents subtly highlight the case's contours as well as the famous "H"-shaped links of the integrated bracelet--Hermès's instantly recognizable signature. This harmony of tones lends the watch a discreet refinement and makes it easy to pair with both yellow gold and white metal jewelry. Its white dial, perfectly understated, features black Roman numerals that enhance its timeless elegance. The gold hands and crown add a touch of luminosity without ever disrupting the balance of the design. Powered by a Swiss quartz movement, this watch combines precision, reliability, and ease of use for everyday wear. Its delicate proportions and clean lines allow it to complement both elegant attire and a more contemporary style. At the intersection of jewelry and watchmaking, this Hermès Heure H perfectly embodies the Parisian house's philosophy, where the purity of design meets the quality of craftsmanship. More than twenty years after its creation, this model remains one of the most iconic women's watches in the Hermès universe, captivating with its timeless design and instantly recognizable identity. The watch is duly signed and numbered, and we guarantee its proper functioning for one year (except in cases of impact or submersion).
