Description

Louis XV Cherry Wood Chest of Drawers - 18th Century An elegant chest of drawers made of solid cherry wood, featuring three large drawers on the front. This beautiful 18th-century provincial piece captivates with the quality of its wood, its warm patina, and the refined simplicity of its decoration. The drawer fronts are accented with elegant scroll-molded trim typical of the provincial Louis XV style. The clover-shaped keyholes and original bronze drop handles add a lovely touch of authenticity. The drawers, fitted with dovetail joints, are a testament to high-quality traditional craftsmanship. The chest of drawers rests on small, slightly tapered straight legs and features paneled sides. The top is a single piece, showcasing the superb grain of the cherry wood. The piece has retained a beautiful
