Description

A beautiful Louis XV-style chest of drawers in burl walnut veneer, made in the first half of the 20th century. It stands out for its elegant, flowing front with three large drawers, its curved side panels, and its richly carved legs, inspired by 18th-century French furniture. The burl walnut veneer features spectacular grain, offering remarkable depth and decorative richness. The scalloped top, curved sides, and brass handles and lock plates highlight the elegance and quality craftsmanship of this piece. Both functional and decorative, this chest of drawers offers ample storage space thanks to its three large drawers. Its harmonious proportions allow it to blend seamlessly into both classic and more contemporary interiors. Period: first half of the 20th century. Style: Louis XV. Material: burl
