Description

This Indonesian kriss features a beautiful blade, crafted using a technique that involves forging various metals to create a lovely decorative effect. The scabbard is made of wood, and the hilt is carved wood. It has a beautiful patina from use. This is a very beautiful kriss dagger that symbolizes both the physical and social aspects of its owner; an identical model can be found in the collections of the Quai Branly Museum. Regarding its condition, please note that the tip of the blade is broken, as is the end of the sheath; there are signs of wear from use and slight oxidation. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the item. Regarding the condition, please examine the photos closely. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description. Dimensions:- sheath Height: 48
