Description

French Art Deco Walnut Cabinet, Circa 1930
Elegant French Art Deco cabinet dating from the 1930s, crafted from walnut with a beautiful flamed walnut veneer featuring a particularly decorative symmetrical pattern on the two large doors. The cabinet rests on slender, tapered legs, which give it a light and refined silhouette while still providing ample storage space. Beneath the main section are two large drawers fitted with their original wooden handles, offering practical storage for linens, documents, or various everyday items. Subtle checkerboard marquetry bands adorn the upper and lower crossbars, adding an elegant decorative touch without disrupting the purity of the Art Deco lines. The slightly rounded corners and balanced proportions are a testament to high-quality French
