Description

A finely hand-painted porcelain plate depicting the famous capture of the Malakoff Tower during the siege of Sevastopol in the Crimean War. The scene, remarkably rich in detail, depicts the French troops' assault on the Russian fortifications. The uniforms, hand-to-hand combat, cannons, and the French flag lend this composition a particularly vivid historical character. A work of fine craftsmanship, created in the second half of the 19th century. Dimensions: With frame: 37.5 × 27.5 cm Porcelain plate: 32 × 22 cm Condition: Very good overall condition.
