

19th-century Antique Victorian Ring With Australian Opal And Natural Pearls Set In Yellow Gold

3 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Antique 18-karat yellow gold ring (hallmark: owl), featuring a stunning Australian opal cabochon weighing approximately 3.00 carats at its center, surrounded by pearls (probably natural). The band is finely engraved with plant motifs and beads. Victorian work from the 19th century, likely French. Gross weight: 5.41 g Height of the design: 2.20 cm Width of the design: 1.60 cm Ring size: 50 (diameter 16.00 / US 5.25). Condition: very slight micro-scratches and oxidation on the gold parts, slight wear on the opal and pearls; see photos.

Dealer

GALERIE PENELOPE

Bijoux anciens

Mobile : 07 56 99 58 05

Paris 75017